AMONG THE MINES.

The Cullen and Nancy Hanks Said to Be Making Large Outputs.

Harry Watkins left for Paris, Tennessee, Monday, where he has some day mines in operation.

The Commodore Mining Co., is putting in a new air compressor which will assist in rapid development of this mine.

It is reported that the Keystone Mining company has the best lead and spar vein in this district at 160 feet deep.

From fifteen to twenty wagons are moving spar from the Mary Belle spar mines, to the Kentucky Fluor Spar company's mill at Marion daily.

We notice that Tom Barnes and Jim Barnett have been hauling a big lot of machinery for the Cullen company the past week, says our New Salem correspondent.

The Nancy Hanks is getting out a fine lot of mineral. The Nancy Hanks is undoubtedly one of them when the show-up comes, says our New Salem correspondent.

Our New Salem correspondent says: The Cullen mine is undoubtedly doing some big mining, judging from the amount of smoke continually pouring from her chimneys.

Mr. J. M. Parsons is pushing the Trumbo mines for all they are worth, and is getting out a considerable quantity of No. 1 fluor spar, and delivering same to Mr. Roberts at Marion.

President Schofield and Messrs. Seuthey and Marrell, of Covington, spent this week at the Schofield-Speers mines. They are elated over the prospect notwithstanding the work that has been done and is yet to be done.

The Riley mines on the Marion Brook is turning out some very rich mineral, the bottom of the shaft is covered with lead and spar. Mr. Knight, the owner of these mines, has been under the weather and has not been able to go out for a few days, but we are glad to say that he is better now, and visiting his mines again.

The engine at the Columbia mines is broken. Watkins and Drescher will have to suspend operations at the lead and zinc shaft until the new one arrives, which is already ordered. This will not throw any men out of work, however, as the miners will be transferred to the Mary Belle spar mines until the new engine gets there.

The Morganfield Mining company has resumed work again near Sheridan on the Larnie vein. Messrs. A. C. Noe and W. M. Quirey, of Morganfield, the managers of the company, were out at the mines last week and started a number of men to work. Mr. James Barker of Cave-in-Rock, Ill., took a contract to get out a large amount of carbonate for the company from the vein that runs parallel with the Larnie vein on the west side. The company intends opening up and putting in machinery in both the Larnie vein and the carbonate vein.

Mr. A. H. Reed has resigned the position of General Superintendent of Mines to the Kentucky Fluor Spar company, to take effect June first. Mr. Reed will not leave the district, but rather will be more busy than ever in endeavoring to carry out certain plans for the benefit and building up of the ore producing section of Western Kentucky. Incidentally Mr. Reed states that he will establish an office in Marion and enter upon the regular practice of his profession, that of Mining Engineering. Mr. Reed came to Marion last year highly recommended, and has made many warm friends since his location here. He is an educated and refined gentleman whom we hope will remain permanently with us.

One of the biggest coal deals ever consummated in the State was perfected here, whereby Thos. A. Navins, the multi-millionaire, of New York, president of the United States Gas, Coal and Coke company, of Sturgis, purchased the Tradewater Coal and Coke company, the Baker company, of near Wheatcroft, and about 25,000 acres of coal land in this section. The price paid for the Tradewater company was $400,000, for the Baker property $100,000 and for the other rights probably a like sum.

It is understood that this is only a preliminary deal looking to a larger one, by which the combined interests here will be turned over to the North American company, one of the industrial combinations of which J. Pierpont Morgan is the head. The company owns the street railways and gas franchises in St. Louis, Milwaukee, Memphis and other places, and consumes over a million and a half tons of steam and gas coal a year themselves.

The new combination will have a producing capacity of about three million tons year to meet which will require at least six large shafts, employing 6,000 men.

The outlook at Sturgis is very promising, and it is logical to believe that the town will boom into a city of no small proportions within a brief time. It is reported that the Navins plant and the others taken in, together with the territory bought, will be sold to the North America for a sum approximating three million of dollars. The owners of the Tradewater company are Louisville men, of which J. L. Frankel is President.

—Louisville Times.

A LATER STATEMENT.
New York, May 19.—The report that the North American company will spend $3,000,000 for coal lands and collieries in Kentucky and to operate a line of boats to convey the coal from Kentucky to St. Louis is declared incorrect in official quarters. The company had taken options out on coal lands in Kentucky with a view to ultimately taking up these options and this is declared to be the programme at the present time, although nothing definite has been done in regard to spending $3,000,000, as reported.

The intention to supply its own fuel is one of the methods by which the company proposed to reduce the expenses in connection with operating the public utilities companies of St. Louis, control of which was recently acquired. When these coal properties are taken over, it is possible that an outside company will be formed, inasmuch as all of the St. Louis companies, namely, the Laclede Gas, United Electric and the Railways company will receive benefits from the lower price of fuel as furnished by the North American company, or an allied concern.

THOS. H. COCHRAN

Unanimously Chosen to Represent Crittenden and Livingston County at Frankfort.

The Democratic convention which assembled in Salem last Saturday to nominate a candidate to represent Crittenden and Livingston counties in the next general assembly of Kentucky was quite harmonious.

Chairman P. S. Maxwell, of Crittenden county, called the convention to order. Only one name was presented, that of our townsman, Thos. H. Cochran, who was put in nomination by Congressman James in a few well chosen and eulogistic words.

The nomination was seconded by Secretary of State H. V. McChesney, on behalf of both counties. He saying that Mr. Cochran was of Livingston and belonged to Crittenden only by adoption, while himself, was of Crittenden and belonged to Livingston by adoption. In other words they had exchanged counties and it was therefore an especial pleasure to him, to second the nomination as both claimed both counties, to a certain extent.

The vote was unanimous and Mr. Cochran declared the nominee and accepted in a few remarks, thanking his friends and assuring them of his loyalty and devotion to his party and its principles. The convention then adjourned.

ENTHUSIASTIC

Was The Meeting of The Farmers at Salem Last Thursday.

The Livingston County Farmers Club had quite an interesting meeting at Salem last Thursday. A large attendance was had and quite a number of interesting discussions were engaged in.

A basket dinner spread in the yard at the Franklin house was much enjoyed by all present. After dinner the visitors and residents of Salem repaired to the church, the merchants closing their stores, and there the club held a very enthusiastic meeting.

The question of a joint Crittenden and Livingston county fair was discussed in all its phases, and met with hearty approval by citizens of both counties who were present.

Chairman McGraw appointed a committee to attend the meeting of the Crittenden County Commercial Club last Tuesday night and named Messrs. J. R. Summers, Albert Butler, J. R. Farris, J. R. Moreland and M. F. Robinson.

Presbyterians Adopt Union Report.

Winona Lake, Ind., May 23.—Amid a storm of applause, and without debate or dissenting voice, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church today voted to be reunited with the Cumberland Presbyterian body, which withdrew from the original denomination Feb. 4, 1810, thereby, in effect, bringing together two of the largest branches of Presbyterian faith. By the adoption of the report of the special canvassing committee the assembly ordered the question as it now stands to be referred to the committee on co-operation, with the provision that it have the power to confer with a committee from the Cumberland to the end that details of consolidation may be worked out in a report to the next general assembly.

The special committee in its report on the question of consolidation canvassed the vote by Presbyteries showing 144 yeas and 39 nays. Dissenters from the east and south apparently made no concerted effort to defeat the consolidation. The proposed union with the reformed church with the general synod, was discussed but no action was taken pending the action by that body which is in session at New York.

Celebrates Twenty-First Birthday.

Ollie Marshall Lowry was given a birthday dinner by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Lowry, at their country home near Salem last Saturday. A sumptuous dinner was spread and every one there spent a most pleasant day. Among those who were there to congratulate the young gentleman on attaining his majority were Messrs. Jake Farris, Mary Fleming, Ellen Croft, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Matlock, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. M. George, Mr. and Mrs. Ruckner Croft and many others whose names we did not get. They all left wishing the best many returns of the day.

Well Known Resident Dead.

Many visitors to Salem will remember old Maro, the family and brood mare of Jake Farris. She was born 32 years ago and died of old age last March during that bitter cold spell of weather. She was of Bruce Denmark stock and was raised by Wm. Farris, an older brother of the gentleman who owned her so long and took such good care of her. She furnished Mr. Farris with $1,500 worth of colts and foaled one when she was twenty-eight years old, a circumstance which rarely happens. Her owners were attached to her as one of the family and were grieved when she died.

Married at Henderson.

John G. Asher and Mrs. Vitula Hubbard were married last Thursday at Henderson, where they went on the 7 o'clock train, and returning to his home on the evening train.

Mr. Asher is the circuit clerk here and has many warm friends who have learned to esteem him very highly on account of his uniform kindness in his official as well as social life.

Mrs. Hubbard was a Miss Williams before she married E. S. Hubbard. She was raised in the Shady Grove neighborhood and lived there until she and her husband moved to Mississippi, where he died. He was a brother of our townsman, J. R. and D. J. Hubbard. Mrs. Asher is spoken of highly by those who know her and everyone is congratulating our popular county official in winning a bride entirely worthy of him. The Press wishes them much happiness.

An Unusual Sight.

Early risers last Friday morning were treated to a sight rarely seen in Marion which consisted of the long vestibuled trains, made up of sleeping and palace cars. The cause of their presence in Marion was the frightful wreck on the main line last Thursday afternoon at Echols, in which eight men lost their lives and several hundred feet of track was torn up, which blocked the way and necessitated the New Orleans through trains from Cincinnati taking a circuitous route, via Owensboro and Henderson, thence over the O. V. branch through Marion to Princeton. No. 101 passed through here only three hours late, but No. 103 was fourteen hours late. Each train was heavily loaded with passengers, and carried several Pullman palace sleeping cars.

Get Two Contracts.

The Marion Bank building and the new postoffice building were awarded to Messrs. Munda & McGraw, of Henderson, last Friday when the bids were opened in the office of Haris & Sheppell, architects, in Evansville. Their bids on the postoffice was considerably under some of the others, but was only a little lower than Boston & Paris Lumber Co., who were the next best bidders, but on the bank building they were considerably lower.

There were a number of bidders from here, Evansville, Henderson, Uniontown and Morgantown. The successful ones, Messrs. Munda & McGraw stand high in building circles and have for many years been recognized as being as good as any in the trade.

OKLAHOMA LETTER.

POST CREEK, OKLA., May 17th, 1905.—ED. PRESS: I enclose $1.00 for the Press. I have decided that since your burn out you have forgotten me; but finding my paper at Coldwater, which is the old Hillsdale office, I see that you had only forgotten the address.

As there is a prospect of a good wheat crop and a shortage of hands is expected, some of my neighbors have asked me to advertise through your paper for harvest hands. I can not tell just what wages will be paid, but they talk $1.50 to $2.25 per day and board. It will be as much as $1.50 until Christmas, and can say to those wanting a job that these are good, responsible people, and that this would be a good opportunity for them to see and learn of this country, and if there is charges on this you will have to notify me as to the amount.

With my best wishes for the Press and the many friends who read it, I close.

Very respy,

J. H. CRIDER.

The Palace excels all in dress goods, silks, mulls and lawns. Dainties and wash fabrics in endless variety.

Notice.

We call the attention of all superintendents of the county to the fact they are wanted at the county convention which will meet at Piney Fork camp ground sometime in July. Everybody is invited to come. We want it to be a good day to all. Bring your singers, your children and your speakers. Come to help somebody to a happier life, and at last to heaven.

W. J. HILL.

District President.

CRAZY NEGRO

Kills Sheriff and Wounds Seven Others.

Hawesville, Ky., May 22.—Seven men are seriously injured, two others are dead and a home is in ashes as the result of an attempt to arrest a crazy negro near Waitman, a small village near the Hancock and Daviess county line.

The dead are William Brown, of Hancock county, deputy sheriff, Robert Shaw, the crazy negro.

Brown was killed by Shaw who also wounded the seven other men. Shaw was in turn killed by the crowd which had collected around his house when he was forced to leave it on account of the fire that had been started with the view of making him surrender.

Shaw is supposed to have lost his mind Sunday. He went to the home of a farmer near Waitman with a gun and announced that he intended to kill the farmer and his son. The farmer persuaded him to leave the place without carrying out his threats. Shaw then returned home and his wife, becoming alarmed at his actions went to Waitman, where she swore out a warrant for his arrest. A constable who went to the negro's house to arrest him was turned back by Shaw's threats to shoot. During the afternoon a posse of 100 men was assembled and surrounded the house with the purpose of arresting Shaw and placing him custody. Shaw fired four times on the crowd and wounded seven members of the posse. A guard was kept around the house all Sunday night.

Monday morning the posse was increased to 300 men wild with the desire to take the negro. Shaw spent the greater part of the day on his front porch loading shells for his gun. Frequently he would go inside of his house and could be heard praying loudly for assistance. Whenever he saw one of the members of the posse approach the house he would threaten to shoot and the men all kept at a safe distance.

About 3 o'clock Deputy Sheriff Brown, decided to crawl up to the house while Shaw was engaged in prayer. He hoped to be able to take the negro alive but took his gun with him. While the deputy was crawling along the side of the house Shaw came out on the porch and fired a load of buckshot in Brown's head. The top of his head was torn off and death was almost instantaneous.

The death of deputy Brown infuriated the crowd and plans were at put into action to capture the negro. Large weights were wrapped in cotton and being saturated in turpentine were set on fire and thrown at the house. The building was soon in flames and Shaw walked out on the porch. He had hardly reached the middle of the porch when 200 shots were fired at him and he fell dead about twenty feet from the spot where Brown's body lay. The crowd rushed to the house and the body of Deputy Brown was picked up from the ground where it had been lying for three hours.

The bodies of Deputy Brown and Shaw were removed to Waitman where they were placed on board a Texas train and brought to Hawesville. The engineer of the train left his engine to look at the bodies and found that the white man was his brother. He finished his run though his engine pulled the coach which held the body of his brother.

Two Brothers Drowned.

Madisonville, Ky., May 18.—One of the saddest accidents that ever occurred in our city was the drowning Thursday evening, in a pond near town, of two brothers, Luther and Robert Townsend, who live near Charleston, Hopkins county.

The boys were students of the summer normal school at this place, and had been in a habit of going to this pond most every evening after school hours and having a swim. On this afternoon they were accompanied by a boy friend and had been in the water for sometime when one of them suggested a swim across the pond. They all started together and not looking about him their friend swam across, and then was much surprised at their sudden disappearance. He immediately gave the alarm and in a few minutes an eager throng was at the fatal pond, for only summer did it claim a young man as its victim.

Attempts were immediately made to recover the bodies of the drowned boys and it was with much difficulty and many attempts that the efforts of those who were engaged in grappling for the bodies, were rewarded in bringing them to the surface. The supposition is the boys had been in the water so long that they had been taken suddenly with cramps and were unable to call for help.

The Body Whirled.

Marion, Ind., May 18.—Oma Ramsey, 19 years old, who was in charge of a pumping station in the oil field, went on duty Monday at noon. While oiling the machinery his clothing became entangled in a large belt wheel. His body was whirled about the belt until today, when it was discovered by a fellow workman who went on duty.

Ramsey had not eaten his supper Monday evening and it is thought he was killed soon after going on duty Monday noon. The machinery is operated by a natural gas engine and it was in running order when the body was discovered.

Willis Ray has good taste in foot wear. See the show windows of the Palace.

AT CERULEAN,

The Kentucky Editors Will Hold Their Convention--Trip to Chicago and the Lakes.

The Kentucky Press Association will hold its convention this year at Cerulean Springs. This matter was decided upon at the meeting of the executive committee held recently in Louisville. The exact date has not been yet selected, but the convention will be held sometime before the 10th and the last of July.

The party will arrive in Cerulean in the afternoon in time for supper, and the business meeting will be held the morning following in the pavilion, and that afternoon they will leave on a week's trip to Chicago and the lakes.

Something like two hundred people will attend this meeting and the fact that the convention is to be held on Trigg county soil is a compliment to that county that every citizen will contemplate with no small degree of pride. Cerulean is one of the most beautiful resorts in the State, and that Capt. Pool will spare no pains in giving the editors of the State every courtesy possible and the most royal entertainment while they are with him goes without saying.---Caldiz Record

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jenkins will represent the Crittenden Press at Cerulean and will take the trip to the lakes.

ADDRESS

Of Miss Mary Deboe to the Many Friends of Marion Graded School.

My friends, the Trustees of Marion Graded School, and the Taxpayers of this School District,

We are highly gratified to see so many of you here at the conclusion of this school term, as it is only another proof of the great interest taken by you in the school.

It is not only a duty which I cheerfully perform, but I consider it a rare honor and a high privilege to stand before you in the cause of education and in the name of the school to thank you for all that you have done for us.

Many of you remember the small, one-story brick and the dilapidated old frame building that stood by it, in which some of you sat as scholars, where neither the heat of summer nor the cold of winter could be kept out. But you were not satisfied to see your children striving to obtain an education under the many disadvantages you had labored, and eleven years ago, through your generosity and kindness, a building was erected of which you had great reason to be proud, and which stands as a splendid monument in this community, setting forth the great fact that you were alive to the importance of educating the young for the service of their generation.

And the success of the Marion Graded School has shown that a wise Providence guides you in the selection of the one which you placed at the head. He, ably seconded by a efficient corps of teachers, has given us one of the best schools in the great State of Kentucky. And who can estimate the value of a good school in uplifting the people? This can not be done, but to show you what some persons think of it I shall quote what Edward Everett said:

"Give me the means of educating my children and I will not exchange its thirteenth sand or its barest peaks for the most fertile spot on earth, deprived of those blessings. I would rather inhabit the bleakest nook of a mountain, with only the wild wolf and rattlesnakes as my near neighbors, with a village school well kept, at the foot of the hill, than to dwell in a paradise of fertility, where my children must be brought up in ignorance."

The cultivation of the mind has often been compared to the cultivation of the earth. If the farmer relax his labors and his fields remain untilled this year or the next, although a crop or two be lost the evil may be remedied. The land, with its productive qualities, is left. If not plowed and cultivated this year it may be the year after. But if the mind be wholly neglected during the period most proper for its cultivation, if it be suffered to remain unimproved, its vital power perishes for all purposes of an intellectual nature it is lost, and you realizing this placed within the reach of your children splendid opportunities for improving the mind for which we are indeed grateful.

To attain perfect success the teacher must always have the hearty cooperation of the patrons. This has certainly been true of this school, for you have always responded liberally and willingly to every call made upon you. Having all faith in the ability of the Superintendent and his assistants, you have aided him in his efforts to make this the best institution of learning of its kind in the State. It is a fact that we have in our Principal one of the best educators in the country, and today we see an evidence of his work, and as a result of this the fame of this school has attracted the attention of the public and brought many students to Marion to enjoy the advantages offered by our splendid teachers and school. Not only this, but many permanent residents have been induced to come to our city, so that their children might have the opportunity of attending the Marion Graded School.

The attendance of the school was so increased that the lack of room necessitated the erection of a new building.

This proposition was submitted to the people and they generously voted upon themselves a tax of five thousand dollars for this purpose. And see the result in our new class room and this splendid auditorium, and in this auditorium we boast of something that no other school in a city of this size possesses. And as we meet here our hearts swell in gratitude to the people, and especially to the trustees whose earnest efforts in making the Marion Graded School what it is we shall never forget.

Not only to the trustees present but also to those far away do we extend our sincere thanks, and especially to Mr. R. C. Walker who through his paper, the Crittenden Press, greatly aided in the success of the school. And as you have been so successful in your work in the past, may it continue in the future and undiminished prosperity attend all your endeavors in every trying season.

We do not believe in writing obituary notices, but I think it better to have a few flowers to the living, as a token of esteem than to wait to plant so many garlands upon the grave.

And now in token of our appreciation of what you have done for us, it is my pleasant duty to present to you this memorial tablet bearing this inscription:

To these and those they represent who have labored so well for us, we raise this tablet in gratitude and love.

Mob Hangs a Negro.

Columbus, Ky. May 12. Bob Witherspoon, a negro ex-convict, was hanged by a mob in the public square of Belmont, Mo., just across the Mississippi river from this place at 7 o'clock tonight, for kidnapping County Judge Ferdinand Boss. His wife and three-year-old child this morning and getting a ransom of $600 for releasing them. A posse, led by the sheriff of that county, was bringing the negro into Belmont to place him in jail when they were overpowered by the angry and excited mob, their prisoner taken from them and swung up to a telephone in the heart of the city.

While a bilious attack is decidedly unpleasant it is quickly over when Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are used. For sale by Woods & Orme, druggists.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflammation of the mucous surfaces.

SOME REMINISCENCES.

WRITTEN BY FRANK LOYD

MR. EDITOR: Being requested by so many to write something of the sunny South, if you will give me a little space in your paper I will be as brief as possible. Of course if I should even tell the important things I saw and learned it would consume the entire space of several issues. Realizing this I shall only mention a few facts that might be of some interest.

Since leaving Kentucky the latter part of 1904, I have traveled about thirty thousand miles, not only the southern states and territories but in old Mexico. I have traveled the plains of Texas and New Mexico and also viewed the plains and mountains in Old Mexico. Receiving a traveling commission I made Houston, Tex., my headquarters. While at Houston I met my old friends and townsmen, Walker, Glenn, Flannery and others, who left Crittenden county to make their fortune in the Southwest. I found S. W. Walker, not only benefited financially and physically, but spiritually. I came to the conclusion that Sam had concluded to prepare himself to imitate his father in the ministerial work. Sam and his son Oda both have good positions with the Houston Drug company, probably the largest wholesale drug company in the State.

Now if Sam can not benefit them physically he will turn his spiritual searchlight on them.

Houston is a beautiful city of some 75,000 people and being the second city in the state, and is claimed by the best posted men that in three years it will be larger than San Antonio, the largest at present. I know of no city in the Union that is growing faster than Houston, Tex. So many people ask me about Texas, and what I thought of them going there, to look for a home, etc. Now as I have traveled about twenty thousand miles in Texas, and been in every town of any importance, I will say that is too broad a question, that you will have to confine your question to some particular part of the State.

While Texas borders for several hundred miles on the gulf she extends as far north as Fulton, Kentucky, and being twelve hundred miles east and west, she has her rich valleys, also her dry sandy deserts, that is worthless; she has the climate and soil to produce everything grown in the Union.

The same questions are asked me about Old Mexico; and if you wish to follow mining I know of no better place to pitch your tent than in Old Mexico. But as to farming, but little of its barren country is suitable only the bottom land and land that can be irrigated is suitable for farming.

Land that can not be irrigated is unfit for anything except to the half civilized Indians and Mexicans, who now own it, and their burrows, yet the two Mexicos and Texas can not be surpassed for beautiful scenery, and no one enjoys viewing beautiful nature more than your writer.

Often as we would be traveling over the barren prairies we would see the wolf, deer, antelope and hear as they would be walking lazily along and our horse would pass them very quickly.

One of the most beautiful scenes in the southwest is the Pecos bridge on the Pecos river. The train always stops on the center of the bridge for the passengers to get out and view the beautiful scenery. Your writer crossed it a number of times but never failed to go out with the rest, to view the beautiful scenery below us. It is highest bridge in America and second highest in the world, being 2,180 feet long and 321 feet high above water. Just imagine yourself 321 feet in the air.

I will now give a sketch of the most interesting gathering I attended while in Texas and Old Mexico. On the 22d day of February, it being Washington's birthday, and a holiday in the United States, Mexico agreed to join hands with Texas in making it the greatest day in the history of the "gate cities," Laredo, Texas, and New Laredo, Mexico, opposite each other on the Rio Grande, a small, shallow river, separating the United States from Mexico. On that day the best roping contest ever seen in Texas was to take place. It was sure a "red letter" day. Never in their history has the two gate cities conducted a celebration with more first ve splendor nor succeeded in carrying out their ambitious designs with such complete fullness and grandness. I never witnessed such scenes as upon that day in the two cities. In the heat of the moment their citizens felt that they were great. Their guests were astonished at what was set before them and all the awakened senses strung to a feverish excitement, and would not let the tired eyelids to close in sleep. To narrate a clear story would puzzle my mind. They came not singly but trooped abreast. They were on a hurrah. King Carnival decreed for madness and merriment sharing the throne proclaimed a ban against order. Every post was in festive attire; the air was filled with confetti like snow, hunting covered the houses in brilliant profusion of parti-colors. Both cities swarmed with hordes of visitors and dead out to them all the things the pleasure seekers were after, a high old time. Your writer for future reference jotted down some of the most important scenes, which I will try to describe.

All the morning special trains were rolling in loaded with sight-seers, from the States and Mexico. It appeared that the sides of both cities would spring out and burst from the number of people overrushing into them. They found plazas where the bands from both republics discoursed music from decorated and banner-lung kiosks. The Twenty-eighth Infantry band from Fort Sam Houston gave a concert on the parade ground of Fort McIntosh. The Twenty-third Battalion Cavalry band from Monterey, Mexico, which is one of the finest in the republic, was ordered there by Secretary of War Mexico, by special request of Gen. Diaz, President of Mexico. The Brenham celebrated band, the New Laredo band and several others were present. There was no want of music to please each particular taste. Explosive fireworks incessantly bombarded the firmament from house-tops and public squares. Yet those wanting to see other amusements could go over the bridge across the Rio Grande and find the Midway, with Ferris wheel and side shows galore. A Mexican company put on the nativity at a quaint little chapel, and attracted crowds of people who were anxious to see for once in their life that almost extinct remnant of the early religious drama, more primitive than the famous Passion play of Oberammergau and as old as the blessed story itself.

And last, and as well patronized, that quaint Mexican border custom rarely seen anywhere in the interior, and fast decaying on the frontier, the Mexican fiesta, in all its delicious, unique phrases, and with a glory all its own, but shorn of its strength, the roulette table, keno and monte, took in their share of visitors and was a scene of humanity by full measure, pressed down and trickling over at the top.

Wedded to a Habit.

Robert L. Taylor, the much married ex-Governor of Tennessee, is never averse to a joke, even when it is on his genial self. Just now he is telling this one:

Upon the occasion of his most recent marriage, late in the fall of 1904 was, he says, somewhat puzzled as to the fee he should bestow upon the East Tennessee parson who tied the nuptial knot. Whispering his dilemma confidentially to a friend, Gov. Bob with difficulty suppressed his laughter at the following advice: "Why not give him just what you are accustomed to give."—Woman's Home Companion for June.

If you have a weak stomach or are troubled with indigestion, you will find these tablets to be just what you need. For sale by Woods & Orme, druggists.

Tired of Life.

John Ramage died this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the city hospital from an overdose of morphine taken with suicidal intent. Ramage took the drug at the Commercial House Wednesday afternoon.

He was discovered in an unconscious condition about 10 o'clock and Dr. Rozzell of Mayfield, who was stopping at the house, was summoned. Antidotes were administered, but the poison had been taken too long for them to be effective.

This morning he was taken to the city hospital in an unconscious state and never aroused.

Ramage was forty years of age. He was a carpenter and had recently been at work on a new house being built at Wickliffe. He leaves one son, F. H. Ramage of this city.

The body was taken to Meacham & Etinger's undertaking establishment and it will be sent to Kentucky, Ky. Mr. Ramage's former home, for interment. Paducah News-Democrat.

When ever you have a lingering ail, And need a magic little pill, No other can will fill the bill. Like DeWitt's Little Early Risers. The famous little pills. Early Risers cure constipation, sick headache, biliousness, etc. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for either children or adults. J. C. Jones, Chief Burgess, Milesburg Borough, Pa., says: "I never used pills in my family during the forty years of housekeeping, that gave such satisfactory results as DeWitt's Little Early Risers." Sold by Woods & Orme.

that the "firing" hereafter will be done at night thus doing away with the obnoxious odors.
A. M. Hearin & Son have sold their stock to James Travis, of Tribune. The inventory was taken Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Travis will take the goods to Tribune. A.
M. Hearin will retire from business.
T. E. Hearin has bought a stock in Illinois and is conducting business there.
W. H. Clark returned Wednesday morning from Louisville. He came near being in the disastrous wreck at Echols, his train being the next one due. He took some fine Kodak views of the wreckage piled in the cut where so many lives were lost. This was one of the worst wrecks in the history of the I. C. railroad.
Miss Lon Dean left Tuesday night for Barstow, Tex., to visit her father, Dr. T. L. Dean. Miss Lon has been a student of the Marion graded school for several terms, making her home with her uncle, Al. Dead. She boarded the past winter and spring at Prof.
Evans' residence and has made many friends here, who regret her departure. She expects to teach next fall.
In the Saturday number of the Louisville Times was the picture of Master Paul V. Cox, who won the prize in a recent guessing contest.
He is the handsome son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cox, of Kelsey. Mr.
Cox is the well known merchant of Kelsey and a brother of Mrs. Ellen Croft and Felix Cox, of this place.
Mrs. W. E. Cox is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McChesney, of this place, and a sister of H. V. McChesney, of Frankfort, and H. D. Mc-Chesney, of Salem.

IN SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hayward entertained last Thursday afternoon and evening in honor of their guests,

Lewis, both of Caldwell county, failed to get here, also A. J. Conant, of Lyon county. Each one had some pleasant reminiscence of his trip across the continent in the halcyon days when gold was discovered in California. These reunions have been held every six months for several years past and the ranks are thinning out considerably until now only a dozen attend. They were served with a sumptuous dinner at the New Marion hotel and spent the day relating anecdotes of their experiences on the plains with Indians, buffaloes and other wild animals. John Mon-gomery, of Providence, is president of the club. He is a brother of Mrs.
J. B. Kevil, of this city.

GENERAL NEWS

Owensboro, Ky., May 16.-In a crap game at Southtown Raymond Chappell shot and killed a negro who was known as "Hog Hall." The murderer escaped and has not been captured.

Owensboro, Ky., May 17.-As the result of a pistol fight on the streets here this morning, James Stephens, white, and John Burness, a negro, are at their homes fatally wounded. Eight shots were fired, and Stephens received two bullets and Burness one.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 17.-The coroner's jury returned a verdict exonerating the Pennsylvania Railroad company from any blame for the late South Harrisburg disaster, in which 22 lives were lost and more than 100 were injured.

Frankfort, May 17.-Curtis Jett's thumb on the right hand was cut off by a machine while at work in the chair department of the penitentiary today.

Stanford University, Cal., May 17.-The corner stone of the $800,000 library building at the Stanford University was laid with impressive ceremonies. A hitherto unpublished address to students by the late Mrs. Stanford was read. In it she makes an unexpected endowment to be raised by the sale of her private jewels, estimated to be worth one million dollars.

Santiago, Cuba, May 16.-General Maximo Gomez is dangerously ill of nephritis. The General's extreme age and results of the many wounds he received for the liberation of his country complicated the situation. He rallied from an operation for abscess, but he suffered a relapse and his family are with him.

Maysville, Ky., May 17.-Owing to the heavy rains the big hill west of town known as "Fort Hill" has begun slipping, threatening many residences and making them untenable. Lafayette Jones and family were compelled to flee from their residence, the house having slipped nearly off its foundation.

Uniontown, Ky., May 18.-Mrs. Eliza Valley of Walnut bottoms, near here is dead. Nine hours before her death she gave birth to twins each of which had a mouthful of teeth. The larger one died. Its teeth were as large as a grown person's. The living child's teeth are not so large.

Vanceburg, Ky., May 16.-Five hundred thousand railroad ties, belonging to the G. W. Stamper company and tied in a boom at the mouth of Kinney, were broken loose by the rafts of logs coming down the creek and are now out on the Ohio river.

Williamsburg, May 13.-Wesley McHargue was given three years in the penitentiary here for shooting John Carr.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. C. B. Wainwright, of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pains in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by Woods & Orme, druggists.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Very Best.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by Woods & Orme, druggists.

REMARKABLE PAINTING Practically GIVEN AWAY.

"The Three Most Beautiful Roses"
By Paul de Longpre.

At the urgent solicitation of the Woman's Home Companion, Mr. Paul de Longpre, who is the greatest painter of flowers in the world, consented to make a painting of what he considered "The Three Most Beautiful Roses," and the painting is without doubt one of the masterpieces of this great artist. This magnificent picture is reproduced in all its original grandeur on the cover of the Woman's Home Companion for June. Although this cover is an accurate reproduction of a painting worth hundreds of dollars, yet the June number, which has this exquisite cover, may be obtained at any first-class news-stand or direct from the publishers for the trivial sum of only ten cents.

Mr. Paul de Longpre is justly styled the "King of Flower Painters." He not only paints roses, but every flower that grows, and is the highest authority on flowers. His paintings are found in the most select homes. Some have sold for as much as seven thousand five hundred dollars. $7,500.

Artists, art critics and competent judges all agree that the covers of the Woman's Home Companion far exceed those of any other magazine.

The Woman's Home Companion is a magazine which in beauty and excellence, art, stories, illustrations and fashions, etc., exceeds all other home and family magazines. The Woman's Home Companion is published by The Crowell Publishing Company, New York City, also Chicago, Ill., at One Dollar a year and is the favorite magazine in nearly half a million homes, where it is read each and every issue by three million people.

Sunday School Teachers' Training Class.

FROM PILATE TO CALVARY.

After repeated efforts to release Christ, Pilate, at last, yielding to the clamor of the Jews, gave the sentence which led to his crucifixion. Weak and exhausted with loss of sleep, anguish of soul, and physical abuse and suffering, Christ staggered beneath the burden of the cross as he carried it, so that they took it from his trembling shoulders and had it upon Simon, the Cyrenian. Probably about nine o'clock they arrived at the place of crucifixion.

OUTLINE OF LESSON.

1. On the way.
2. Christ bearing the cross.
3. Simon assisting him.
4. The crucifixion.
5. Preliminary incidents.
6. Jesus nailed to the cross.
7. The two robbers crucified with him.
8. The title placed on him.
9. The hour of anguish.
10. Disposal of his garment.
11. The mocking rabble, Matt. 27:30-44.
12. The sympathizing friends.
13. The thief's conversion, Luke 23:39-43.
14. Jesus places his mother in John's care.
15. The darkness, Luke 23:44, 45.
16. The death scene.
17. Immediately succeeding events.
18. The veil of the temple rent.
19. The great earthquake.
20. The resurrection of the saints.

LIVING THE LESSON.

1. Christ bore the cross for me.
2. Jesus suffered and died for me.
3. Am I willing to bear the cross for him?
4. Am I willing to suffer and live for him?

TOPICS FOR STUDY.

1. Fate of Judas.

2. The trial before Herod.
3. Pilate's warning.
4. Pilate's attempts to release Christ.
5. Calvary.
6. Prophecies fulfilled.
7. The seven words on the cross.
8. The inscription on the cross.
9. The darkness.
10. The earthquake.
11. SEARCH QUESTIONS.
12. Why did the Jews not go into the hall of judgment?
13. How came him to be taken before Herod?
14. Had Herod jurisdiction over the case?
15. How many times did Pilate attempt to release Christ?
16. How did he try to indicate his uncertainty?
17. What awful imprecation did the Jews invoke upon themselves?
